Attacked by Road Agents.

[Helena (Montana) special.]
The coach which left here this morning for Boulder, forty miles south, was stopped by five armed men at the top of the Boulder On board were Chief Justice D. S. Wade, District Attorney J. A. Johnson, E. W. Tolle, W. E. Cullen, Judge Chumasero, T. H. Carter, Rev. L. L. Wood, and Sheriff Cameron, of Meagher County. As soon as the robbers ordered a halt, Sheriff Cameron and several other members of the waukee parties 150 barrels of cider of Ralph party opened fire, which the desperadoes returned. Charley Warfield, one of the robbers, was shot dead, and the others re-Cummings, to be shipped at once. The treated, and took to the mountains. No one in the coach was hurt. Sheriff Cameron received a shot through his coat. It is believed the attacking party wanted to rescue Neill Murphy, a road agent, now under arrest, who was supposed to be on the coach en route to Boulder for trial. Murphy, however, was left in jail at Helena. This afternoon two posses of five well-armed men left for Beaver Creek, where they expect to intercept the desperadors. Sheriff Cameron with another posse is following the trail from the point where the encounter encouragement received to satisfy those took place.

POET WILL M. CARLETON was recently married, and has settled in Brooklyn. His wife's Christian name is Betsy, but they are not reported as "out" so far.

MRS. FLETCHER HARPER is soon to be married to her brother-in-law, Mr. James Harper, a member of the publishing house of Harper & Brothers.

One of the pretty little parks in Washington is to be named in honor of the late Secretary of the Treasury Polger.

TENNYSON, the poet, has given Sculpt Sands a cast of his head.
